JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

In this appeal, the appellant who is the writ petitioner seeks to assail the order, where under the writ petition filed by him was partly allowed.

Though several contentions have been urged on behalf of the appellant, however on a reading of the order of the learned single Judge, it is seen that the said order has been passed in pursuance of the earlier proceedings in W.P.No.20167 of 1999, dated 17-07-2002. In view of the same, we do not find any reasons to vary with the same.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
